

CRANBOURNE SUBSTATION

Switchyards and substations are a significant when connecting AC electricity to the power grid when resourced from today's environmentally significant advanced solutions for renewable electrical energy.

The Cranbourne 500KV Substation civil works package involved concrete structures, pavements and earth grids and was constructed by CATCON as an interstate project for Areva T&D.

QUICK FACTS

- >> Located in South-East suburbs of Melbourne
- >> Civil works package for Areva

